

Please do not change the Do Not Call List as it stands in New Jersey forever. I finally have peace of mind. I can eat dinner and watch television without constant interruptions. The previous years it was so bad I wanted to get rid of my phone. I had an elderly mother who has since died and the solicitors drove us to tears with their constant calling. Yes, it was that bad. Please let us keep the peace. The solicitors have no mercy on the general public.